

	MURFREESBORO CITY SCHOOL BOARD POLICY
	Descriptor Term: PERSONAL PROPERTY SALES	Descriptor Number:	Date Adopted:
		Revision Adopted: 9/93; 3/01

When equipment, books, materials, and other personal property no longer have an intended use by the system or are no longer usable because of condition, the Board shall declare them surplus property and authorize their disposal.

Murfreesboro City Schools will sell surplus property within ninety (90) days of it being declared surplus, to the highest bidder after advertising at least seven (7) days in advance of the sale in a newspaper of general circulation.

Surplus property which has no value or has a value of less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) may be disposed of without the necessity of bids.

The principal of the school, the Director of Schools, and the Chair of the Board of Education must agree in writing that the property is of no value or that the value is less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

Any revenue derived from the sale of surplus property and equipment shall be deposited in the general purpose fund of the Board.

Textbooks which are of no value to the Murfreesboro City School system shall be discarded in any one of the following ways:

1. Sell them to another school system
2. Give them to another school system or to a related agency
3. Give them to students or personnel
4. Give them to an agency which collects paper
5. Destroy them by recycling, shredding, or burning.
