

The Ann and Monroe Carell Jr. Families First Program Presents: Solving Behavior Challenges at Home— A 4-Week Workshop Series *

For parents of children ages 2-5 diagnosed with an Autism Spectrum Disorder

Registration is required

Learn how to increase desired behaviors, decrease undesired behaviors, and teach new skills.

Families First Leadership Team
Lisa Wallace, M.S., CCC-SLP
Families First Program Leader
Zachary Warren, Ph.D.
Director of VKC TRIAD PSEP Clinic
Wendy Stone, Ph.D.
Director of VKC TRIAD

© LISA SVAFIA. IMAGE FROM IstockPHOTO.COM

Program is free of charge

Free on-site childcare will be available on a limited basis if requested before the registration deadline

October 7th, 14th, 21st, 28th

6:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m.

Every Tuesday night in the month of October

Parents are expected to attend all 4 sessions

For information:

familiesfirst@vanderbilt.edu

or (615) 343-4265

triad.vanderbilt.edu

Location:

Room 241 Vanderbilt Kennedy Center/MRL Bldg

For registration:

kc.vanderbilt.edu/registration/

Parents must register by September 15, 2008

 This workshop is a repeat of the August 2008 series.